Mills is the attorney who, it is alleged, attempted to destroy the indictments against Dr. Flower. County Detective Brinsley gave the information and arranged a meeting.

When juror No. 11 had taken his sead

in the box in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, a man approached former Justice Fursman and whispered

"I would like to question juror No. 10," said Mr. Fursman, who is counsel for Mills.

Justice Fitzgerald gave his consent and Mr. Fursman asked Frank Boyle, of No. 152 Centre street, who was the tenth man in the box, if he had not said in court that he thought the D'strict-Attorney had a good case against Mills. The juror said "Not exactly," and counsel for Mills then asked if he had Frank Brown and Thomas O'Comnell Held for Grand Larceny.

Thomas O'Connell, who said he lived at the Rossmore Hotel, and Frank Brown, who gave his address as the Criterion Hotel, were held for examination in $1,000 ball each by Magistrate Mayo in Jefferson Market Court today on a short affidavit charging them with larceny.

They were arrested by Detective-SerThey were arrested by Detective-Ser geants Peabody, McConville and Clarke in the rooms of the Capital Commission Company, St. James Building.

It is said by the detectives that the men are provided to pay investors 208 per cent. The men were arrested in the complaint of A. T. Miller, who claims to have been defrauded out of St.000 by the concern.

Ex-Assistant District-Autorney Daniel O'Reilly appeared for the prisoners, and he asked that the examination in the case be postponed until Friday because O'Connell was ill. This request was granted, and after the men had furnished bail they left court.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up $1.75 doz., formerly $3 doz. my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen
